TIME IS A PRECIOUS COMMODITY

Well, it happened! Summer came and went. I know, I know what you're thinking, summer isn't over until September 21st. But, for all intents and purposes—it's fall! Our kids are back in the full swing of school. Football is being played on fields across our country with a little bit of learning mixed in. As far as church is concerned, fall is the time for us to regather and to get busy being the church. It feels a little different to me at St. Peter's UCC. It doesn't feel to me that we took the summer off—in fact—this past summer was one of our busiest in years. Time is a precious commodity and we all only get so much of it in this life until we pass on to the next. That awareness either causes us to just take a break and live life, or it spurs us to get busy getting things done.

Johnny Appleseed was a real-life figure who in mythology was a man who couldn't get enough things done in this life. Maybe you remember the Disney song for Johnny Appleseed?

The Lord is good to me
And so I thank the Lord
For giving me the things I need
The sun and rain and an apple seed
Yes, He's been good to me

I owe the Lord so much
For everything I see
I'm certain if it weren't for Him
There'd be no apples on this limb
He's been good to me

Oh, here am I 'neath the blue, blue sky
A-doin' as I please
Singin' with my feathered friends
Hummin' with the bees

I wake up every day
As happy as can be
Because I know that with His care
My apple trees, they will still be there
Oh, the Lord is good to me

Lyrics transcribed by Disneyclips.com

Written by Kim Gannon and Walter Kent
Performed by Dennis Day

That's a song sung at summer camps across America before meals, and it's a song with a very important life lesson. While Johnny Appleseed worked hard to plant trees for pioneers heading west, he did it because he felt God's call for him to that work. However, Johnny always did the work with joy and felt gratitude for each day. That is our challenge this fall—to do the work that God calls us to do, and to do it with joy and gratitude or not at all.

I do a lot of stuff I hate, like cleaning and organizing, paying taxes and so on. I need to be more aware that even though each day brings challenges and—if we're being honest—things we don't like, we need to focus on the joy that each breath from God offers us. Every day is a gift! Every breath is an opportunity to feel God's love and grace. Every day of our life is placed in God's heavenly family scrapbook.

Oh, the Lord is good to me—and, you too! So, let fall be upon us as we continue to cherish our time. It's good to be the church!

Remember, you are loved!

Pastor Chris

SEPTEMBER SERMON SCRIPTURE READINGS

9/3 Romans 12:9-21

Let love be genuine; hate what is evil, hold fast to what is good; love one another with mutual affection; outdo one another in showing honor. Do not lag in zeal, be ardent in spirit, serve the Lord. Rejoice in hope, be patient in suffering, persevere in prayer. Contribute to the needs of the saints; extend hospitality to strangers. Bless those who persecute you; bless and do not curse them. Rejoice with those who rejoice, weep with those who weep. Live in harmony with one another; do not be haughty, but associate with the lowly; do not claim to be wiser than you are. Do not repay anyone evil for evil, but take thought for what is noble in the sight of all. If it is possible, so far as it depends on you, live peaceably with all. Beloved, never avenge yourselves, but leave room for the wrath of God; for it is written, "Vengeance is mine, I will repay, says the Lord." No, "if your enemies are hungry, feed them; if they are thirsty, give them something to drink; for by doing this you will heap burning coals on their heads." Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good.

9/10 Romans 13:8-14

Owe no one anything, except to love one another; for the one who loves another has fulfilled the law. The commandments, "You shall not commit adultery; You shall not murder; You shall not steal; You shall not covet"; and any other commandment, are summed up in this word, "Love your neighbor as yourself." Love does no wrong to a neighbor; therefore, love is the fulfilling of the law.

Besides this, you know what time it is, how it is now the moment for you to wake from sleep. For salvation is nearer to us now than when we became believers; the night is far gone, the day is near. Let us then lay aside the works of darkness and put on the armor of light; let us live honorably as in the day, not in reveling and drunkenness, not in debauchery and licentiousness, not in quarreling and jealousy. Instead, put on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make no provision for the flesh, to gratify its desires.

9/17 Romans 14:1-12

Welcome those who are weak in faith, but not for the purpose of quarreling over opinions. Some believe in eating anything, while the weak eat only vegetables. Those who eat must not despise those who abstain, and those who abstain must not pass judgment on those who eat; for God has welcomed them. Who are you to pass judgment on servants of another? It is before their own lord that they stand or fall. And they will be upheld, for the Lord is able to make them stand. Some judge one day to be better than another, while others judge all days to be alike. Let all be fully convinced in their own minds. Those who observe the day, observe it in honor of the Lord. Also those who eat, eat in honor of the Lord, since they give thanks to God; while those who abstain, abstain in honor of the Lord and give thanks to God. We do not live to ourselves, and we do not die to ourselves. If we live, we live to the Lord, and if we die, we die to the Lord; so then, whether we live or whether we die, we are the Lord's. For to this end Christ died and lived again, so that he might be Lord of both the dead and the living. Why do you pass judgment on your brother or sister? Or you, why do you despise your brother or sister? For we will all stand before the judgment seat of God. For it is written, "As I live, says the Lord, every knee shall bow to me, and every tongue shall give praise to God." So then, each of us will be accountable to God.

9/24 Philippians 1:21-30

For to me, living is Christ and dying is gain. If I am to live in the flesh, that means fruitful labor for me; and I do not know which I prefer. I am hard pressed between the two: my desire is to depart and be with Christ, for that is far better; but to remain in the flesh is more necessary for you. Since I am convinced of this, I know that I will remain and continue with all of you for your progress and joy in faith, so that I may share abundantly in your boasting in Christ Jesus when I come to you again.

Only, live your life in a manner worthy of the gospel of Christ, so that, whether I come and see you or am absent and hear about you, I will know that you are standing firm in one spirit, striving side by side with one mind for the faith of the gospel, and are in no way intimidated by your opponents. For them this is evidence of their destruction, but of your salvation. And this is God's doing. For he has graciously granted you the privilege not only of believing in Christ, but of suffering for him as well— since you are having the same struggle that you saw I had and now hear that I still have.

Get to Know Your NEIGHBOR

While many of our longtime members know one another, our newer members do not. We hope this new article will bring us closer together as we serve God as one family.

Hello, my name is Sally Readinger and I've been a member of St. Peter's approximately 13 years.

I was baptized and confirmed at St. Paul's Episcopal Church in Conneaut, Ohio, and to be perfectly honest, I don't remember if there was anything especially that stands out in confirmation class.

What I like best about St. Peter's are my fellow parishioners.

I have several wonderful memories at St. Peter's. Probably the best memory is my daughter's wedding. It's because of her wedding that I started attending services here and eventually joined as a member.

As a young woman I had pulled away from the church, much to the dismay of my parents. Even after my daughter was born, I never had her baptized. It wasn't until she was planning her wedding that we went in search of a church for the ceremony.

There were very few options in the area where we lived that she was interested in. Since she had cousins that lived in Amherst we decided to start looking there. I called a few churches and left messages with the reason for my call. Being the not so patient person I am, when I didn't get an immediate response, we decided to just attend church services and St. Peter's was the first. At that time the minister was Reverend Mark Pemberton and at the end of the service he would stand at the front doors and greet each member as they left. As we were walking out, we introduced ourselves and explained why we were there. He immediately took us to his office and talked to us. My daughter and I were very impressed with him and it turned out he was also raised in the Episcopal church. We both fell in love with the beauty of the church itself. I felt very at home there because the service was so reminiscent of what I had grown up with. I started attending service every week. When I went down to Fellowship Hall for coffee hour, I had the pleasure of meeting one of the most wonderful women I had ever met, Marge Marshall. She made me feel so welcome and she reminded me of my own mother whom I missed very much. Then other women befriended me and before I knew it, I was becoming a member of the church and Circle Six. My daughter had the most wonderful wedding and eventually was baptized by Reverend Mark. The rest is history!

I can't pick just one time I've been proud of members of my congregation as there have been so many. This congregation is filled with members that go above and beyond to ensure this church's future and I couldn't be prouder to call them my friends.

I have only 1 child, my daughter Ashley. But I'm also blessed to have 3 wonderful grandchildren, Damien 15, Savannah 14 and Arrianna 13. As many of you know, our lives revolve around baseball/softball because of these kids and I couldn't be prouder of all three.

I grew up in Conneaut, Ohio.

I am retired from an insurance company in Cleveland called AIG where I was a Senior Casualty Underwriter.

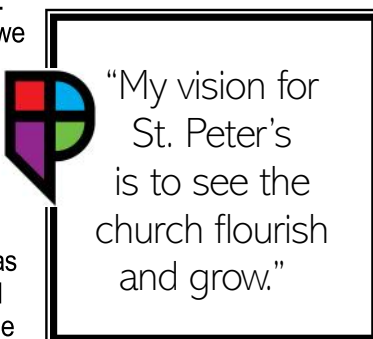

My hobbies consist of scrapbooking, cardmaking, various other crafts, bowling and attending baseball & softball games.

My vision for St. Peter's is to see the church flourish and grow.

The missions I feel are important for St. Peter's are the food collection, the compassionate care committee and especially Circle Six. Circle Six is a small group of women but we work hard to give back to the church, support various charities in our area and, provide assistance with our mission blankets and supporting family members when a loved one passes on.

God is calling this congregation to be stewards of his word and teachings.

The Bible describes the church as the body of Christ, and Christians as members of that body. For as in one body we have many members, and the members do not all have the same function, so we, though many, are one body in Christ, and individually members one of another.

To foster, encourage, and instill in children a joy of learning, the wonder of discovery, a love of God and his creation.

It is hard to believe that September is already here! The preschool staff is excited and ready to start the new school year in the freshly updated preschool wing! Thank you to all who helped make it beautiful.

We have so many fun and exciting activities and fieldtrips planned for the school year. Our first field trip will be to Miller's Apple Hill to pick some apples. We look forward to the hayride and learning fun facts about apples. This month the children will be learning about friendship and sharing. We will also learn the letters Aa, Cc, addresses and the color red!

Please say a quick prayer for the staff, students and parents as we start out the year. It is so nice to have the love and support of the church on our side.

Sincerely,

CROP HUNGER WALK - JOIN US!

Sunday, October 8 | 2 PM | Meet at 5 point in Amherst

The prolonged war in Ukraine, on top of the pandemic and other disasters is causing a global food crisis. Millions are on the brink of famine. The CROP Hunger Walk and the funds we raise will feed the hungry through CWS. When you join this movement, donate and raise funds, you will provide life-saving support like emergency food along with the seeds, tools and programs that will help families feed themselves in the future.

Get your pledge forms from the church office, get sponsors/donations, and turn in to Tom Jewell the day of the walk. If you can't walk, that's not a problem. Walking just helps us relate to what people in developing nations do every day just for food and water. You can either sponsor/donate yourself, or you can try to get others to sponsor/donate to you.

Local Impact: 25% OF THE MONIES RAISED WILL GO DIRECTLY TO AMHERST FOOD PANTRY at GOOD SHEPHERD BAPTIST CHURCH!

Thank you for helping this community-led fundraising event to END HUNGER and by supporting U.S.-based hunger-fighting organizations.

At St. Peter's we work together in love to build strong foundations for our lives in Christ. This firm foundation allows us to put "Arms and Legs on Christ's love in the world." We believe that God is calling you to be embraced by God's radical love and to be a part of this foundation of faith.
